THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The seventh annual meeting of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons was held in the Hall of the Franklin Institute on Sixth-day evening, First month 13, 1871, at eight o'clock; Stephen Smith, Vice-President, in the Chair.

Bishop Campbell, of the A. M. E. Church, opened the meeting with prayer.

The Annual Report of the Board of Managers, (including the proposed alterations to Rules 3d and 19th,) and the Treasurer's Report were read, approved, and referred to the incoming Board for publication, as follows:—

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The opening of the New Year brings with it the period when it becomes the duty of the Managers to present an account of their stewardship.

The past year opened auspiciously by the donation from our venerable friend and Vice-President, Stephen Smith, of a suitable site for a new building, for the better accommodation of the Home. The same friend has since evinced commendable liberality by subscribing over twenty thousand dollars (three-fourths of which has already been paid) towards the erection of the edifice.

Encouraged thereby, the managers have felt warranted in proceeding with the work, believing that their many friends will not be backward in making contributions towards its completion.

Active operations were not commenced till last autumn; and on the 10th of Eleventh month, (November,) being the natal anniversary of our generous friend, his wife, Harriet Smith, (who has felt a deep interest in the promotion of the enterprise,) appropriately laid the corner-stone.

Quite a large company was present on this occasion, when addresses were made by Stephen Smith, William J. Alston, Samuel R. Shipley, Lucretia Mott, J. B. Reeve and others, and contributions to the amount of several hundred dollars were made towards the work. The total cost, however, will reach about thirty-two thousand dollars. For two-thirds of this sum, as stated above, we are already indebted to the liberality of our Vice-President. For the remainder, the money to be obtained from the sale of the present building will not be sufficient, and therefore we would urge, briefly but earnestly, that, as it is anticipated the benefits of the Home will hereafter be expanded five-fold, our subscribers and contributors will aid us all in their power to supply both what is lacking in the Building-Fund, as well as in the means needed for the support of a much larger number of inmates.

The amount received last year, we regret to say, was much less than formerly.

The new Home is now so far advanced, that it will shortly be ready for roofing in, and probably for occupation, in the early part of the ensuing summer.

It is located on a large lot near the junction of Belmont and Girard Avenues, West Philadelphia, which was given to us for the special purpose of erecting thereupon a building commensurate in size and improved accommodations with the increased needs of our institution.

The new building has a length of one hundred and ten feet, and a width of fifty feet; is four stories in height, including the Mansard attic, and has a cellar beneath all. The exterior walls are of Trenton brown-stone, having interior lining of brick, while the partitions of the rooms and passages are likewise of the latter material, by reason of which, the safety of the inmates, in the event of fire, is made reasonably secure. On the first floor there will be a dining-hall, kitchen, laundry, two parlors and four other rooms. The three upper stories are alike in their arrangements and subdivisions, each having nine rooms, four of which will be provided with six beds, (single,) four with four beds, and one with two beds. There will also be a bath-room and a general wash-room, &c., on each story. As to capacity, it is designed that there shall be accommodations for about one hundred and thirty persons. A wide corridor runs the length of each of the upper stories, and as the building faces nearly east and west, it is expected that plentiful sunlight and a free circulation of air will have been secured; while special care has been taken, by the introduction of ventilating flues, to guarantee a like amount of healthfulness and comfort in winter as in summer. Benj. D. Price and B. Frank Leeds are the architects; Christopher Binder, builder.

Since last report, we have lost by death three of the inmates, Emeretta Murphy, Rachel Jackson and Nancy Williamson, and have admitted four, making the number now in the Institution twenty-six.

Although the extremely warm weather of the past summer was very trying to the aged and sick, yet not a death occurred during that period, notwithstanding many of them, (ten at the present date,) are unable to come down to their meals, so feeble is their health.

The oldest woman of all (and who was admitted since our last annual meeting) is entered on the rolls as having attained the mature age of one hundred and ten years. Ask this centennarian to remove her turban, and she will show to you a remarkable head of hair, white, soft and almost silky in its fineness and lustre. She is bent over, as we would say, "almost double," and hence it would hardly be expected that a person so decrepit in appearance would be such an one as would do any work. But quite the reverse is the fact. She scours the knives and forks of the establishment in addition to doing many other things, and always insists on cleaning up her own room; for her room-mate, it appears, is a trifle of twenty or thirty years her junior, and so she perhaps thinks that the latter is a little too young to be trusted to so much responsibility. When told that she was much stronger than many of our young men now-a-days, she remarked that they were idle and goodfor-nothing; but, as for her, strength was given to her, and she meant to do all she could whilst it lasted.

The matron visits these two every evening before retiring, and their demeanor evinces that, though very lowly people, yet are they experienced Christians. The younger often speaks sympathizingly to their evening visitor, telling her that she looks tired, &c., and should have rest; but the matron feels when she leaves that it has been to her a season of refreshment, both of body and spirit.

"They also serve who only stand and wait."

Some time back, the ordinary routine at the Home was varied not a little by the visit of a Donation party of colored persons, twenty or more in number. The matron, who alone had been apprised of the expected event, had previously requested the inmates to come down into the parlor, and great indeed, was their surprise to see so much company gathered. The visitors bestowed gifts of cakes and oranges to each of the old women, and gave them an extra vocal treat of their best music, besides leaving a valuable contribution of provisions.

Our physician, Dr. James Collins, has been unremitting in his kind and gratuitous attention to the health of these aged women, and we desire here to express our grateful acknowledgments to him. We refer with satisfaction also to the continued success of the matron in the domestic management of the Home.

Two amendments to the Rules are hereby submitted for the approval of the contributors.

Signed on behalf of the Board,

STEPHEN SMITH, Chairman.

RESOLUTION

In reference to our late fellow Manager MARY SHAW, who deceased First month 14th, 1871.

Whereas, our friend Mary Shaw, after a lingering illness, has passed from things of earth to the higher life, and it is fitting that we should bear testimony to her worth and to the deep interest which for the past six years she ever manifested in the Home and in the welfare and comfort of its inmates; therefore

Resolved, That by the sickness of our friend (terminating in her death) the Board of Managers were deprived of the valuable services of one who was warmly devoted to the cause of suffering humanity, and to the promotion of measures for the relief of the poor and needy.

In her removal society has lost a useful member and our Home a deeply interested friend, whose kindness and sympathy evinced for our aged inmates has left its impress on their minds, and a feeling of regret that she whom they loved has gone before them to that glorious city where there is no more sorrow.

May we who survive be stimulated to greater exertions for the comfort of God's poor and humble ones.
