ANNUAL REPORT.

Now that the passage of time has brought us to the issue of our Fourteenth (14) Annual Report, we feel that we have great reason for gratitude to the Giver of all good gifts, whose loving kindness has been manifested in so many ways, since the first establishment of the Home.

Our inmates are a class who have had, until recently, little of the attention and sympathy of the benevolent; and consequently possess few of the comforts of this life in their declining days, when too old and feeble to work for their support.

Your managers have, at seasons, been much discouraged by the small amount of funds in their possession, but generally, when their need has been made known through the press, or otherwise, the charitable have come forward with the means to carry us over the difficulty for the time. We could, however, much extend the usefulness of the institution if provided with more money, as the names of a number of worthy people have been presented, whom we were compelled at various times to decline to receive, for want of more means to accommodate them.

The great depression of business for the last four or five years, has caused many of our contributors to reduce the amounts of their subscriptions, and indeed, some have been compelled to discontinue them. We would, therefore, urge upon those who are blessed with plenty, to remember our helpless charge, and also to make known our needs to others.

The health of the family (since last report) has been remarkably good; most of the deaths resulted from a gradual breaking down of the system due to old age.

The time for holding our annual meeting, having been changed from the First month (January), to the Sixth month (June), this report will, therefore, contain the work of the Managers for the past seventeen (17) months.

Since our last report, we have had several bequests, as will be seen by reference to our Treasurer's account. A portion of this money has been used to clear the Home and grounds of an incumbrance against them.

There have been several entertainments for the benefit of the Home, and pleasure of the old people; among which, a musical one by the "Hutchinson Family" was well appreciated by them, and netted the Home between eighty and ninety dollars. There was also an invitation for a free visit to the Zoological Gardens, which was accepted by many of those that were able, who greatly enjoyed the privilege. The managers of the Permanent Exhibition also kindly appointed a time for a free visit of the old people, and after expenses, offered to donate the balance of the receipts for the benefit of the Home.

The visit was much enjoyed by them, but unfortunately the receipts fell short, so the Home received no pecuniary benefit from the generous offer. In all these cases, we feel that the thanks of the contributors should be extended to the parties conferring these favors. Dr. Jesse W. Thatcher, our attending physician, has been regular in his visits to the Home, and deserves the thanks of the contributors for his many acts of kindness. We have deemed it best to lighten the labors of our worthy Matron on account of her advancing years; and so have relieved her of the housekeeping, and placed it in the hands of a younger and more active person.

We have to record the deaths, during the year, of two of our managers, Henry Gordon and William Scott, both of whom were active and much interested in the Home while connected with us, Henry Gordon generously remembering the Home in his will.

A few extracts from the Matron's reports may here prove interesting.

"Fourth month, 11th, 1877. The birthday of Phillis Hogwood, aged one hundred years, passed off nicely. Our old lady was quite bright, took our worthy Vice-President's arm with one hand, a bouquet in the other, walked in and was introduced, and made her graceful obeisance to the packed audience, when, our friends, the "Hutchinson Family," gave us some sweet music; everybody seemed to be delighted, and the day passed pleasantly away. In addition, she made a little speech, and sang a hymn."

"Sixth month, 13th, 1877. We have just lost one of our number, Judy Johnson, on the 10th instant. She was entered here Twelfth month, 20th, 1876, aged eighty-five years. On last Seventh-day afternoon, the gentlemen and lady who had kindly given her a good home, called to see her. She was very weak, words scarcely intelligible; he asked her if she knew him, she faintly spoke his name. He expressed his great satisfaction at finding her so comfortable, saying, "Judy, I am so glad you are here and kindly cared for." He then put a sum of money in my hand, saying, "Get her any little delicacy you think she can eat," and in a whisper, said: "Tell Miss S. L. to call at my house for yearly contributions, be it little or much, the Home shall have it." There were a few moments agreeably spent in seeing them bid her a tender farewell. She lifted her feeble arms, and with her quivering lips spoke the gratitude of her heart."

"Fifth month, 8th, 1878. Since the last meeting, we have lost another inmate of the Home. She entered the Home Third month, 21st, 1878. Her name was Phillis Laws, aged eighty years. She was entirely blind and a widow. She expressed herself as a woman of sorrow. She was a room-mate of that sainted mother, Rebecca Reason, whose tender care of her was like that of a dutiful daughter, who never thought anything too much to do for a mother. Thus she entered that Home where not one of the inhabitants can say, "I am sick."

We append herewith the Treasurer's Report which has been examined and found correct by your Auditors.

WM. STILL,
Chairman.

All who are admitted will be on probation for a period of six months. If their conduct during that time is not satisfactory, they will be retained no longer, but shall be charged board for the time they may be residents in the Home at the rate of two-and-a-half dollars per week, which is to be deducted from the sum paid for admission, the balance of which shall be returned to the party paying the same.

RULE 4.

Any property or personal effects which an applicant may be possessed of, must be made over for the benefit of the Home prior to their admission therein; and if any inherit property whilst in the Home, and prefer remaining, the said property must likewise be transferred to the Managers for the use of the Institution; all such transfers being recorded in a book kept for the purpose.

RULE 5.

Colored persons, over the age of sixty, of respectable character, and furnishing satisfactory references, may be boarded in the Institution upon such terms as the Managers may decide: but shall be subject to the same rules, and have no privileges different from other inmates. Satisfactory security must be given for the regular payment of the board previous to their admission.

RULE 6.

No boarder shall be received or continued in the Home to the exclusion of those entirely dependent. Two weeks' notice, however, must be given for the removal of any boarder.

RULE 7.

A register shall be kept of the names of all applicants, the persons by whom they are recommended, their place of residence, and the report of the Committee on Admissions thereon, and any information that may be deemed important.

RULE 8.

Those who are pensioners on any benevolent institution or society, it is expected will have their pensions continued to assist in their support, and at their death, their funeral expenses shall be paid by said societies.

RULE 9.

None but the Physician of the Institution, or his substitute, shall attend the inmates, unless he should request a consultation with another practitioner. If any of the inmates or their friends desire other than the regular Physician of the Home, they may, with the consent of the attending Physician, be at liberty to employ such, provided the same shall be without expense or any responsibility on the part of the Institution.

RULE 10.

After rising in the morning, and again before retiring at night, all who are able shall be assembled in a suitable room, and a chapter from the Bible read to them, after which an opportunity shall be afforded for silent or vocal worship.

RULE 11.

Religious Meetings shall be held in the Home on the first day of the week, for those not desirous of attending elsewhere.

RULE 12.

Any of the inmates desiring to visit their friends, (on their written invitation,) must obtain permission from the Matron.

RULE 13.

No stimulants or liquors to be used in the Home, unless ordered by the Physician, and then to be administered by the Matron.

RULE 14.

All visitors shall be properly treated and shown through the Home, especially those visiting for religious purposes. Visitors will not be admitted before 10 A. M., nor after 5 P. M., except in special cases.
