ANNUAL MEETING.

The Twentieth Annual Meeting of the Contributors to the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons, corner Belmont and Girard Avenues, was held Sixth month 12th, 1884. William Still, Vice President, in the Chair.

The meeting opened with prayer by the Rev. Albert S. Mays, after which the minutes of the preceding Annual Meeting were read and approved.

The Board of Managers presented their report for the past year; it was read, approved, and referred to the incoming Board for publication.

The report of the Treasurer was read, approved, and directed to be placed upon the minutes.

The following Contributors were appointed to nominate officers for the ensuing year: Catharine M. Phillips, Samuel P. Godwin, Henrietta S. Duterte, Alice Pennock and A. C. Moore. They reported the following names (printed on page 3) who were duly elected for the ensuing year. Joseph Bacon and A. H. Love were appointed to audit the Treasurer's accounts, previous to the next Annual Meeting.

The Treasurer, Israel H. Johnson, announced there was but $394.98 in the treasury for the support of the family, but as he believed this to be the Lord's work, he felt confident that means would be provided for the support of these old and feeble ones.

Mary M. Harper recited a poem written by J. G. Whittier entitled "The Angels of Buena Vista." Bishop Wm. Bacon Stevens referred to the good work being done by this Institution, and believed it to be the work of the Lord; he spoke of having visited all parts of the world, but no where did he see any efforts made to care for the old and feeble, except in Christian countries. As Jesus came into this world to do good to the bodies and souls of men, so His followers, in His name, care for the sick and destitute in this day.

Judge Wm. M. Ashman addressed the meeting very interestingly, and believed it not only a privilege but a duty to contribute towards the support of such a good work.

Samuel P. Godwin, who has long been a friend of the Institution, addressed the meeting, and stated that the three most worthy Institutions in this city, in his opinion, were, the Reformatory Home, the Sanitarium and the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons, and believed that as they were under the care of the Lord, they would go on shedding light to the souls, and giving comfort to the bodies of those under their care, and that Philadelphia could not afford to be without such Institutions. As the Lord's anointed of old bestowed one-tenth of their wealth to Him, so now let all remember that "he that giveth to the poor, lendeth to the Lord."

Rev. Daniel Ware, a delegate from Liberia, Africa, to the Methodist Conference, addressed the meeting and gave an account of the advancement of Christianity in the little Republic of that dark and unknown continent, and was glad to see here such a comfortable home for the aged and feeble.

Dr. Benj. T. Tanner, Editor of the Christian Recorder, gave a short address. Mrs. Jennie McMurtrie entertained the audience with singing, and Henrietta S. Duterte led the old people in singing a hymn, "Let me Love Thee More and More."

On account of the lateness of the hour many who were present were prevented from speaking, and the meeting adjourned with singing by the old folks.

The Managers reported the fire-proof Infirmary now finished; that the cost had exceeded their expectations, and there is needed about $4,000.00 to complete the payments due on the building.

Adjourned.

THOMAS H. McCOLLIN, SECRETARY.

ANNUAL REPORT.

By the quick succession in which our Annual Meetings follow each other we are forcibly reminded of the rapid flight of time.

The twentieth anniversary awaits the report of the Board of their duties performed during the past year. Since the establishment of this institution in 1864, 294 aged and infirm people have found a comfortable home, with all their reasonable wants supplied, and an entire freedom from care.

The past year has brought its changes. Ann Jess was for many years an active, earnest and efficient Manager. Her interest in these old people led her to spend much time with them while her health and strength permitted; and when no longer able to make her visits there, the appreciation of her kindness to them was manifest by their constant inquiries for her. On Tenth month 7th, 1883, her spirit passed from works to rewards, and with it went the blessings of her aged colored friends.

Thomas H. Davis, another of the Managers who conscientiously performed the duties that devolved upon him, was in attendance at the stated meeting held Third month 11th, and ere another month had passed he too had entered the spirit land. Thus are we reminded that life is fleeting, and we who are left must take up the work laid down by those who have journeyed onward.

A change of Matron has recently become necessary, owing to the failing health of Belinda Jackson, who after five years of faithful, active service in that capacity resigned her position in the Third month, finding her strength no longer equal to the demands made upon it by so responsible a charge. We have accordingly appointed Esther T. Barnes to fill the vacancy.

For two months things have worked well under the new administration, and the Committee are pleased with the cheerful, trusting, grateful spirit pervading the house.

The requisite qualifications for a successful administration in an Institution of this kind, are system combined with forethought, a firm, kind and gentle spirit, manifest in the Matron's intercourse with these old people, thus winning their affection, confidence and respect. With these qualities the Matron will ever receive our hearty co-operation and support in every right effort for the preservation of that order, necessary for the comfort and health of the inmates.

In this large family it is important that the aids employed should work in harmony with the Matron, and in so doing their labors will be lightened. From its visits through the house the Committee are free to express gratification with the manifest willingness to comply with her wishes, and the kindness toward each other.

Through the efficiency of Calvin Mitchell, the gardener, vegetables of the best quality have been supplied, thus lessening the expense of providing for this large family. Some of the inmates have freely given their assistance in the garden, and by so doing have not only found occupation which is always healthful, but their assistance has enabled him to give his ready and willing service wherever wanted.

The past year nineteen women and six men have entered the Home. The necessity for this Institution is evident from the number always waiting to fill each vacancy.

There have been nineteen deaths in the past year, generally from old age, leaving at present one hundred and twelve inmates. No special disease has entered the Home.

Dinah Pinkney, who died Fifth month 13th, aged 92, had been an inmate nineteen years. Charlotte Crawford, who died Eleventh month 10th, entered the Home the first year of its establishment. There are fourteen women who have been in the Institution ten years.

The religious meetings have been held in their regular order and well attended, much to the gratification of the inmates.

Donation Day, First month 1st, 1884, was remembered by many friends, to whom the Board tender their thanks. Among the gifts especially noticeable was a patchwork bed-spread, pieced by the children of the Mission School at Beach street and Fairmount avenue. Another, was a large box of groceries in small packages, gifts of the children of the Olivet Presbyterian Sunday School. The old folks enjoyed a dinner of turkey, roast pig and their accompaniments, with mince pie for dessert. In the afternoon a meeting was held and addressed by S. P. Godwin, Edwin H. Coates and others.

Seventh month 4th, a donation of forty-five quarts of ice cream, forty pounds of cake, from John Bowman, in commemoration of the day.

Eighth month 1st, Emancipation Day, ice cream and cake, which the whole family enjoyed, presented by Mary M. Johnson and Sarah Marshall.

Thanksgiving day the old people enjoyed a good dinner of roast turkey, etc., Bishop Campbell dining with them. After which the Bishop addressed the inmates in a feeling manner which they seemed to appreciate.

Christmas appeared to be to all a happy day. A chicken pot-pie for dinner. In the afternoon they were entertained with speaking, singing, etc., by Humphreys Garrigues and others.

A lecture on the "Holy Land," by Isaac Morgan. An entertainment given by Mrs. Hahn; Imogene Chandler, the elocutionist; Ada C. Shepherd, Mrs. Jennie McMurtrie and others. To the Zoological Garden for free admission. For all these, through the Board, the old folks render their hearty thanks.

The fire-proof addition proposed in the last report is now completed. It provides for the safety of these helpless ones in case of fire and supplies the much needed rooms for an Infirmary.

The partial introduction of steam as a means of heating, adds much to the comfort of the Home.

The cost of the new building and alterations is $17,000—exceeded the first estimate, and there is still an indebtedness of $4,000.

The original building needing many repairs which the managers thought should be made while the house was already in disorder, again made an appeal to their friends for help for that purpose.

While we gratefully acknowledge the generosity of our friends in contributing to this work, we yet ask for more, to help us liquidate the debt still remaining, fully believing in the precept, "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."

We thankfully acknowledge the receipt of legacies and gifts during the past year, which, agreeably with a time back resolution of the Managers, have been invested and added to the Endowment fund, which from its income will now supply the needs of our aged inmates only for about three months of the year; therefore we kindly urge that the friends of these dear old people committed to our care to please not forget to bequeath some of their surplus means to the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons that can be spared from those who have stronger claims for support. Legacies and gifts have been thankfully received from John P. Thompson, William J. Mullen, Rebecca W. Smith, Mary Ann Marshall, Hannah W. Richardson, Eleanor Mather, Wm. and Hannah M. Stapler, T. T. T., Rachel Parker. For cash receipts we refer to separate report of our Treasurer. We here also acknowledge a donation of a house and lot from Bishop J. P. and Mary A. Campbell.

Since the completion of the new building the increased attendance at the table is noticeable, as the lame and infirm, who were not able to get to the dining-room, now go and return by the elevator, thus materially lessening the labor of the nurses.

Moving five of the invalid women into the new Infirmary was a difficult task, owing to their extreme feebleness, which we scarcely realized before. Their delight was great on entering their new rooms, which they never had seen, and many a thank offering was raised to their Heavenly Father from these poor old hearts.

Chloe or "Aunty" Lloyd, as she is familiarly called, aged one hundred and five, a very sweet-spirited woman, who had been confined to her bed a good while, said, "Is'nt it remarkable that I hav'nt a bit of pain, only just waiting for Jesus—Oh! I love Jesus," and then her old hands and voice were raised in praise and thanksgiving. At another time, on meeting her with the salutation, "Why Aunty, what is thee doing?" she quickly replied, "I am trying to live so that I can live again."

Cassy Brown, another inmate, who has been several years confined to her bed and a great sufferer, always meets her friends with a smile, and an expression of thankfulness for her "blessings," having no wish but to "go Home."

The trusting and abiding faith in a joyful hereafter with these people is indeed a lesson from which many may learn, whose paths in this life have been more blessed than theirs.

In order to celebrate the completion of the new building, a committee of women held an entertainment in Liberty Hall for the purpose of procuring material aid to present to the Managers as a token of their appreciation of the work performed; also to keep bright the memory of Stephen and Harriet Smith. They raised the sum of $275, including a donation of $25 from Edward Green.

On Fifth mo. 1st, they held a meeting at the Home, giving a public invitation. At the appointed hour the old people, nicely attired, gathered in their meeting room with many friends. William Still called them to order, and stated the object of the assemblage. He was followed by music from the members of the Shiloh Baptist Church. Speeches by E. H. Coates, Drs. B. T. Tanner, T. D. Miller and others. Mary M. Harper admirably recited "The Old Man in the stylish Church," etc. Fanny J. Coppin, Chairman of the Committee, presented the $275 in gold to Wm. Still in behalf of the Managers, with a happy and eloquent speech. Mr. Weaver, a teacher among the freed people of Virginia, and ex-councilman, Thomas Walter, also made brief speeches.

To Drs. Thatcher and Anderson for their kind attention to the sick, and to Dr. Menller for his willingness to be called in case of immediate need, the Managers tender their sincere thanks.

In taking a retrospect of the past year, we feel that in the intercourse with these, our aged friends, we have found much to enjoy while administering to their comfort.

We are glad to be able, in commending the Home to the incoming Board, to leave it in good condition, trusting that the comfort of all will be increased by the late improvements.

On behalf of Board.

WM. STILL, CHAIRMAN.

ANN JESS.

Died Tenth month 7th, 1883, aged 88.

MEMORIAL.

“When a life of usefulness and devotion to the cause of humanity is closed, it seems fitting that those who have been intimately associated with it should give expression to their feelings of loss in such removal.

Our beloved friend, Ann Jess, has been called hence, and while we feel that no words of ours can add to the beauty of a life, spent like hers, in willing self-sacrifice for the poor and helpless, it is our privilege to record our appreciation of it. With her it was no sudden impulse, created by the knowledge of distress and suffering in special cases, and as suddenly dying away, but a steady perseverance in the cause she had espoused, leading her to extend a helping hand, not only in this Institution (of which she was one of the earliest members), but to the needy in every direction.

As increasing years brought feebleness of frame (never robust), her sympathies lost none of their activity, but continued to flow forth toward those in whose interest she had so faithfully labored, truly placing “her soul in their souls’ stead,” and while her mission on earth was with the poor and lowly, we cannot doubt, that, having finished the work assigned her, she was prepared to enter into her heavenly Master’s rest.”

Adopted by Managers Tenth month 10th, 1883.

 PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

The annual report upon the general healthfulness of the Home will compare favorably with any institution of its kind. The drainage and sanitary requirements are excellent, and reflect credit on its Managers. The inmates have been free from any contagious or infectious disease, and the deaths that have been are generally the result of exhausted vitality from advanced age and past physical taxation. Considering the great age and number, and the average of inmates, there are very few deaths from acute diseases. The prescriptions average about twenty per week.

With best wishes for the future, respectfully

DR. J. W. THATCHER.

RULES.

RULE 1.

The Matron shall have the general charge of the Home, and keep it in neat order, under the direction of the Committee of Management. She is to enforce the rules, see that suitable nourishment is provided for the sick. She must be respectful and kind to every one in the Home, and attentive (without partiality) as their circumstances require. She will promptly check any quarreling or other improper conduct in the inmates, and, if necessary, report the same to the Visiting Committee. She shall keep a record of all clothing sent to the Home, and furnish the Committee with a monthly account thereof. She will be expected to go through the house about 10 o'clock P.M. and see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished.

RULE 2.

No person shall be admitted to the Home but such as bring satisfactory testimonials of the propriety of their conduct and the respectability of their character.

RULE 3.

Those received in the Home must be at least sixty years of age, and shall pay to the Treasurer the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, unless otherwise directed by the Board of Managers. All who are admitted will be on probation for a period of six months. If their conduct during that time is not satisfactory, they will be retained no longer, but will be charged board for the time they may be residents in the Home at the rate of two and a half dollars per week, which is to be deducted from the sum paid for admission, the balance of which is to be returned to the party paying the same.

RULE 4.

Any property or personal effects which an applicant may be possessed of must be made over for the benefit of the Home, prior to admission therein; and if any inherit property whilst in the Home, and prefer remaining, the said property must likewise be transferred to the Managers for the use of the Institution; all such transfers being recorded in a book kept for that purpose.

RULE 5.

Colored persons, over the age of sixty, of respectable character, and furnishing satisfactory references, may be boarded in the Institution upon such terms as the Managers may decide; but shall be subject to the same rules, and have no privileges different from other inmates. Satisfactory security must be given for the regular payment of the board, previous to their admission.

RULE 6.

No boarder shall be received or continued in the Home to the exclusion of those entirely dependent. Two weeks' notice, however, must be given for the removal of any boarder.

RULE 7.

A register shall be kept of the names of all applicants, the persons by whom they are recommended, their place of residence, and the report of the Committee on Admissions thereon, and any information they may deem important.

RULE 8.

Those who are pensioners on any benevolent institution or society, it is expected, will have their pensions continued to assist in their support, and at their death, the funeral expenses shall be paid by said societies.

RULE 9.

None but the Physician of the Institution, or his substitute, shall attend the inmates, unless he should request a consultation with another practitioner. If any of the inmates or their friends desire other than the regular Physician of the Home, they may, with the consent of the attending Physician, be at liberty to employ such; provided the same shall be without expense or any responsibility on the part of the Institution.

RULE 10.

After rising in the morning, and again before retiring at night, all who are able shall be assembled in a suitable room, and a chapter from the Bible read to them, after which an opportunity shall be afforded for silent or vocal worship.

RULE 11.

Religious Meetings shall be held in the Home on the First day of the week, for those not desirous of attending elsewhere.

RULE 12.

Any of the inmates desirous of visiting their friends (on their written invitation), must obtain permission from the Matron.

RULE 13.

No stimulants or liquors to be used in the Home, unless ordered by the physician, and then to be administered by the Matron.

RULE 14.

All visitors shall be properly treated and shown through the Home, especially those visiting for religious purposes. Visitors will not be admitted before 10 A. M., nor after 5 P. M., except in special cases.

APPENDIX.

At the General Conference of the M. E. Church, held during the Fifth month, there were 45 Colored Delegates in attendance, representing every Southern State. One of the Managers, feeling that visits from these strangers would be of interest and benefit to the inmates of the Home, extended an invitation to them, which was accepted by several of the Delegates on the first Sabbath of their sojourn in this city. Others continued to make successive Sabbath visits, much to the interest of the old folks and their friends.

Nearly all of these Delegates had begun life with the fetters of Slavery upon them, and were denied the privilege of even learning to read. They were not old men, mostly not over 40 years of age. Many of them had never before been in the North. Their manly, intelligent bearing showed them to have been earnest seekers after knowledge since the avenues of learning were opened.

In speaking of the Home they said, in view of the well-filled tables, the comfortable rooms with watchful nurses to attend to the wants of the sick and feeble, a kind and judicious Matron, with a superintendence over all, they must testify they had never beheld such a charity for their old and infirm colored people. It was with emotion they compared it to the comfortless Poor-houses of the South, where such as these would be consigned.

While these dark pictures were drawn with much feeling, their addresses told of marked advancement and brighter prospects for the colored race in the near future. It was to be regretted that more of the friends of the Home could not have heard these men and been strengthened in the good work.

A desire was expressed to know the occupations these men were engaged in besides that of preaching. We learned some were builders, mechanics, wheelwrights, planters, store-keepers, and Professors. Professor C. P. Westbrook was President of a College; Prof. W. J. Crogman was teacher of languages in Clark University at Atlanta, Georgia, and at the late General Conference was made one of the Secretaries. Wilson Cook of Greenville, S. C., freed from slavery by the war, is now a prosperous business man. He was sent to the M. E. Church as a Delegate to the Ecumenical Conference in London, and has several times been sent as a Delegate to the National Republican Convention.

During the late General Conference such marked respect was shown through all the proceedings that the prejudice so long existing, seemed extinct.

Rev. Marshall W. Taylor, D.D., was elected as Editor to the South-Western Advocate.

In the Committee on the state of the Church, over which Gov. Pattison presided, they elected the Rev. Mr. Albert, of New Orleans, as Secretary.

These facts showed encouraging signs of the times and an enlarged and progressive view, which stimulated some of their friends to tender to thirty or more of the Delegates, including five Bishops, a reception in Liberty Hall. A number of our own citizens who were friends to the education and elevation of the colored race were also there. Notwithstanding the fatigue consequent upon Conference labors, the invited guests were fully represented, and it proved to be an enjoyable and instructive occasion.
