ANNUAL REPORT.

THE Board of Managers of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons, in presenting their Twenty-sixth Annual Report, feel that they have little that is new to offer.

The friends of the Home have contributed with their usual liberality to the comfort and enjoyment of our large and dependent family ; and the year just ended has given us fresh cause for thankfulness to the Giver of all good gifts, who has put it into the hearts of so many to minister to the needs or the happiness of the aged ones committed to our care.

At the time of our last Report there were in the Home 121 inmates. During the year eight men and nine women have been received. Twenty-one have been removed by death, viz. : seven men and fourteen women. One man left voluntarily. At present we have in the Home 116 old people.

We find, upon reference to our records, that our family has averaged higher during the last five years than at any time since the existence of the Home, necessarily increasing the expenses ; requiring, as it does, more helpers in the domestic department and additional help to look after the many feeble and comparatively helpless ones through the house. We hope this fact will be remembered by the benevolently disposed.

The various holidays have been appropriately observed, and the entertainments provided for the old folks very much enjoyed. Thanksgiving Day was particularly pleasing ; the religious exercises satisfying their spiritual cravings, while the social mingling with their friends gave sunshine to their somewhat monotonous lives that lasted many days. Their creature comforts were not forgotten, as the bountiful dinner of roast turkey and accompaniments proved.

A number of the inmates made their annual visits to the Zoological Garden under the escort of the matron. Mr. Hart again kindly treated them to ice cream, which added very much to their pleasure. For this and all similar attentions we voice the thanks of our household.

Religious meetings have been held regularly on First-days, under the direction of members of various denominations. These meetings are often largely attended by interested friends, and are seasons of great enjoyment to the old people, their devotional and emotional natures prompting them at times to participate in the exercises. The chapel has been thoroughly renovated, much to the delight of the entire family.

It is a satisfaction to report a disposition on the part of most of our inmates to contribute all in their power to the welfare of the Home; many of the men assisting in the garden and helping to keep the surroundings of the house neat and attractive; the women doing what they can to assist in the house. Mary McDonnell deserves special mention. At the age of 109 years she can see to sew carpet rags without the aid of glasses, and this year has contributed enough to make thirty-four yards of carpet.

The domestic arrangements of the Home have continued under the care of Malinda Brown, as matron, and our housekeeper, Mary E. Jordan. These officers have devoted their best energies to the work of Home, and much of the success of the past year is due to their vigilance. The employees have generally discharged their duties with faithfulness and satisfaction, doing what they could to make the institution a home in the full meaning of the word. To all these we extend our thanks.

It was with regret we received the resignation of our matron, Malinda Brown, who has served the institution in that capacity so acceptably for almost five years. Though advanced in life and of great delicacy of constitution, she has been able to fill the position to our general satisfaction; her gentle administration and quiet Christian influence has been felt throughout the entire family, and will be greatly missed.

While feeling very thankful for all gifts received during the year, we feel it would not be just to omit to specially mention the generous legacy left us by Edward Green, and think it was but fitting his remains lay in this Home before being committed to their final resting-place. We also gratefully acknowledge legacies from the following: Hannah C. Flickwir, J. Humphreys McIlvain, Anne Rhoads, Ann H. Wood, Mary Ann McIntosh, Sarah A. Fassett.

In conclusion, we tender our grateful thanks to all who have aided us in any way to brighten the lives of those whose little world is bounded by four walls. Trusting that the same protecting care of an All-Merciful Providence may continue to be bestowed upon us, and the Home receive that practical recognition from a generous public which it so well deserves, this report is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Board.

THOMAS H. MCCOLLIN,

Fifth month 31, 1890.

Secretary.

TO THE PRESIDENT AND MANAGERS:

Esteemed Friends:—The anniversary of another year presenting itself, it affords me much pleasure to submit to your kind consideration my Annual Report.

The year just closed has been very satisfactory. For, although we have had a great deal of sickness of varied forms, and also have been visited by the prevailing epidemic, yet we have been blessed. The mortality of the Home has been comparatively small. The inmates at present are doing well. No infectious or contagious disease has been, or is, existing.

The house is in good sanitary condition, and is kept pure and clean. Our worthy Matron, housekeeper, and nurses are untiring in their efforts to ameliorate the distress and suffering, and endeavoring to make the family happy and comfortable.

Have received as donations drugs, medicines, etc., per kindness of William Weightman (Powers & Weightman), Rosengarten & Sons, Eli Lily & Co., Indianapolis, Ind., Maltine Manufacturing Co., New York, Upjohn Co., Michigan; all of which I have most respectfully acknowledged.

Desiring that the prosperity as well as the progress of the institution may continue, I remain,

Yours truly,

SAMUEL C. HENSZEY, M.D.

RULE 1.—The Matron shall have the general charge of the Home, and keep it in neat order, under the direction of the Committee of Management. She is to enforce the rules, see that suitable nourishment is provided for the sick. She must be respectful and kind to every one in the Home, and attentive (without partiality) as their circumstances require. She will promptly check any quarreling or other improper conduct in the inmates, and, if necessary, report the same to the Visiting Committee. She shall keep a record of all clothing sent to the Home, and furnish the Committee with a monthly account thereof. She will be expected to go through the house about 10 o'clock P. M., and see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished.

RULE 2.—No person shall be admitted to the Home but such as bring satisfactory testimonials of the propriety of their conduct and the respectability of their character.

RULE 3.—Those received in the Home must be at least 60 years of age, and shall pay to the Treasurer the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars. All who are admitted will be on probation for a period of six months. If their conduct during that time is not satisfactory, they will be retained no longer, but will be charged board for the time they may be residents in the Home, at the rate of two and a half dollars per week, which is to be deducted from the sum paid for admission, the balance of which is to be returned to the party paying the same.

RULE 4.—Any property or personal effects which an applicant may be possessed of must be made over for the benefit of the Home, prior to admission therein; and if any inherit property whilst in the Home, and prefer remaining, the said property must likewise be transferred to the institution; all such transfers being recorded in a book kept for that purpose.

RULE 5.—Colored persons, over the age of sixty, of respectable character, and furnishing satisfactory references, may be boarded in the institution upon such terms as the Managers may decide; but shall be subjected to the same rules and have no privileges different from other inmates. Satisfactory security must be given for the regular payment of the board, previous to their admission.

RULE 6.—No boarder shall be received or continued in the Home to the exclusion of those entirely dependent. Two weeks' notice, however, must be given for the removal of any boarder.

RULE 7.—A register shall be kept of the names of all applicants, the persons by whom they are recommended, their place of residence, and the report of the Committee on Admissions thereon, and any information they may deem important.

RULE 8.—Those who are pensioners on any benevolent institution or society, it is expected, will have their pensions continued to assist in their support, and at their death the funeral expenses shall be paid by said societies.

RULE 9.—None but the Physician of the institution, or his substitute, shall attend the inmates, unless he should request a consultation with another practitioner. If any of the inmates or their friends desire other than the regular Physician of the Home, they may, with the consent of the attending Physician, be at liberty to employ such; providing the same shall be without expense or any responsibility on the part of the institution.

RULE 10.—After rising in the morning, and again before retiring at night, all who are able shall be assembled in a suitable room, and a chapter from the Bible read to them, after which an opportunity shall be afforded for silent or vocal worship.

RULE 11.—Religious meetings shall be held in the Home on the First-day of the week, for those not desirous of attending elsewhere.

RULE 12.—Any of the inmates desirous of visiting their friends (on their written invitation) must obtain permission from the Matron, nor absent themselves at any time without permission.

RULE 13.—No stimulants or liquors to be used in the Home, unless ordered by the Physician, and then to be administered by the Matron.

RULE 14.—All visitors shall be properly treated and shown through the Home, especially those visiting for religious purposes. Visitors will not be admitted before 10 A. M., nor after 5 P. M., except in special cases.

RULE 15.—All that is necessary for the comfortable support of the inmates of the Home will be furnished from the funds of the institution; no individual, therefore, will on any account be permitted to solicit assistance.

RULE 16.—All inmates are expected to render themselves generally useful, as far as their strength will admit.

RULE 17.—Smoking and the use of tobacco in any form is strictly prohibited, except in such place as designated by the Matron.

RULE 18.—The bell will be rung ten minutes before each meal, and all who are able will promptly repair to the dining-room. When seated, a suitable pause shall be observed. No inmate will be allowed to carry food from the table. The sick and infirm only will be accommodated with meals upstairs.

RULE 19.—No inmate will be permitted to interfere or find fault with Matron or assistants; but if they think they have cause for complaint they must apply to the Monthly Committee, who will receive their statement and take such action thereon as may be proper.

RULE 20.—To preserve harmony in the family the strictest attention should be paid to the rules of the Home. For the first and second offence, the Matron will admonish the offender. For the third, she will report them to the House Committee; and for the fourth, removal from the Home, if so approved by the Board of Managers.
