MINUTES OF THE THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL MEETING.

THE Thirty-Fourth Annual Meeting of the Contributors to the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons was held at the Home, Sixth month 9th, 1898, Dr. Cornelius T. Shaffer occupying the chair as presiding officer. The meeting being opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last Annual Meeting were read by the Secretary, and, meeting with no objections, were approved.

The report of the Board of Managers, which was read by Mrs. Sarah M. Carver and listened to with great interest, was at once accepted and referred to the consideration of the incoming Board of Managers for publication.

The Treasurer's Report was then read, accepted and also referred to the Board for publication.

A committee was appointed by the Chair to present nominations for officers, managers and co-operative committee, to serve for the ensuing year, constituted as follows : Lydia E. Pennock, R. K. Smedley, H. M. Laing, Samuel Emlen, Theo. Gould.

The result of the conference of the committee after a brief retirement was the presentation of the following named persons for officers of the Home : William Still, President; Walter P. Shipley, Treasurer; Thomas H. McCollin, Secretary. All of whom, on the taking of the ayes and nays, were elected as reported by the Committee.

Also the following named for Managers and Co-operative Committee : [See page 4].

Addresses were made by Hon. T. T. Henton, Rev. John N. Palmer, Dr. T. B. Reeve and Rev. H. L. Phillips, in which the growth, prosperity, success and the economic management of the institution were dilated upon. The importance of earnest and liberal support of all interested in the humanitarian cause for the

Thirty-Fourth Annual Report of the further maintenance of the Home and its yearly increasing expenses was urged upon their hearers.

Mrs. Fanny M. Coppin also delivered an eloquent address full of pathos and earnestness, which was attentively listened to by the assembly.

The proceedings were diversified by a number of beautiful song selections by the Oriental Troubadours ; the delightful entertainment giving much pleasure, both to the audience and to the infirm inmates of the Home.

A vote of unanimous thanks to the Oriental Troubadours was passed for the rendition of their excellent musical programme.

Wm. Still announced to the management his regrets at his inability to take his usual active part in the work of the Home by reason of his recent illness.

Henry M. Laing stated that in all probability the present would be his last attendance, his connection being reluctantly severed by reason of his removal to the far West.

The announcement by H. M. Laing was received with great regret by the management, who called to mind his untiring efforts in behalf of the institution and his zeal and earnestness in all matters connected with the good cause since the foundation, a period of thirty-four years.

On motion, adjourned.

THOMAS H. MCCOLLIN, Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT.

THE Board of Managers of the "Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons," though they have little that is new to offer, feel an obligation to render an account of their stewardship to their kind friends and contributors, in this, their thirty-fourth Annual Report. Life in this little community, bounded by these walls, has gone on in its "even tenor" unmarked by any unusual events.

At the time of our last report we had a family of aged people numbering 140, since which time 18 have been removed by death, 5 men and 10 women have been admitted as inmates—our present family numbering 137; 108 women and 28 men. On first thought the death list may seem a large one, but when it is taken into consideration that many of the old people come to us in an extremely feeble physical condition, and all are more or less infirm, it is not so much a matter of surprise. One man had been an inmate of the Home for 24 years, the latter part of the time being in a state of second childhood, needing the watchful care such a condition demands. Death came as a welcome visitor after he had completed his 104th year. Three others had passed the 90th milestone and were only waiting the messenger that seemed long delayed.

The domestic arrangements have continued under the care of Charlotte L. Riker, as Matron,—whose resignation, taking effect at the close of our fiscal year, has been offered, in accepting which we are not unmindful of the service she has rendered in the fulfillment of the difficult and arduous duties of the position. The housekeeper, Elizabeth M. Lloyd, being about to remove to a distant field of work, tendered her resignation, which was accepted with a feeling of appreciation of her efficient services, and regret at severing a connection that had been very satisfactory. She was succeeded by Cordelia A. Attwell, whom we believe conscientiously discharges the duties of the office. Our engineer, Calvin W. Mitchel, continues his watchful care of his department, and, in addition thereto, is ever ready to lend a helping hand to serve the best interests of the Home. Caroline Woody, after a service of over 24 years as nurse, for which capacity her affectionate heart and good stock of patience especially fitted her, entered the Home as an inmate in her 75th year, paying her admission fee from her savings of many years. She is very happy and looks forward to the rest and comfort to which her long service entitles her.

Thirty-Fourth Annual Report of the

Many kindly thoughts and much friendly interest in our old people have found expression by the pleasant entertainments that have been furnished them by the "King's Daughters," Mrs. Haas, "The Quaker City Association," and individual offerings; Mrs. Haviland and Mrs. Jones giving a service of song and reading twice a week.

John Hutchinson, the only survivor of the original family of public concert singers of that name, who were famous for their devotion to the cause of anti-slavery, sang for the old people on the afternoon of 2nd mo. 24th. This entertainment was especially enjoyed by all the family, as well as by several strangers who were present.

Religious meetings have been held regularly on the Sabbath and at stated times during the week. The exercises being conducted by ministers of various denominations. The fifth Firstday, when such occur, being known as "Friends' Day." More than ordinary interest was attached to the visit of six ministers sent by the U. M. E. Church. They had been assembled in Conference, and represented several States. It was a notable occasion both for the visitors and the visited. Benjamin Wood, a friend from Toronto, Canada, also had religious service at the Home and expressed satisfaction at being privileged to meet our interesting family in their comfortable quarters.

It has always been the custom in this institution to observe all holiday occasions, and the past year has not been an exception. Many friends of the inmates taking the opportunity thus offered to show their good will by gifts of various kinds and by giving entertainments for their amusement, thus bringing sunshine and cheer into their lives which might otherwise be painfully monotonous.

We have to record the death, within the year, of one of our very efficient co-workers and a valued personal friend, Emily P. Shoemaker, whose connection with the Home for many years had been marked by a conscientious devotion to its best welfare and by little acts of kindness that went far towards sweetening the lives of our dependent ones. She has finished her life-work, and, we doubt not, has found "the rest that remaineth."

We cheerfully extend our thanks to our Physicians for their care of the sick and suffering, by whose faithful attentions much suffering and distress have been relieved.

We could not, within the limits assigned to this report, make anything more than a brief notice of the many kindnesses which the friends of this family have shown, and the various ways in which they have contributed to their enjoyment, but we take pleasure in extending thanks in the name of the grateful recipients and in our own, to all who have in any way aided us by gifts of money or merchandise, those assisting in the work of this Christian Charity, thereby lessening in some degree the sum of human suffering, we most cheerfully extend thanks.

We but emphasize a thought that must come into every heart upon a visit to the Home, that its founders "builded better than they knew" when they conceived and put into operation this most beneficent work. The query forces itself upon the mind when passing among these helpless and aged people, many of whom are groping in the darkness, and others, hopeless invalids, What would have been their fate if this Home had not opened its doors to them? Some one has said, that "it is the fundamental principle of humanity that the strong should take care of the weak. The essence of our religion is in the generous impulse that prompts us to share the fruits of our labor with those who are less fortunate." Upon this rock we will build our faith, that among the many fortunate and generous men and women, for which our beloved city is so famous, this institution, with objects so deserving, may never curtail its usefulness for the lack of necessary funds. The old, old saying comes to us as a personal reminder of its significance, "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."

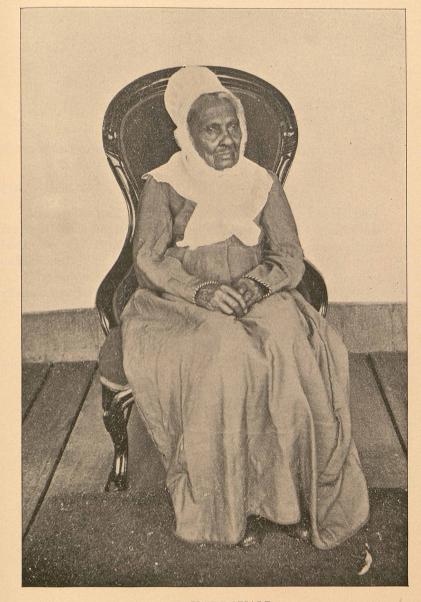

On behalf of the Board,

THOS. H MCCOLLIN, Secretary.

MARY McDONALD.

Mary McDonald, the subject of this sketch, is only one of the many very interesting characters who have found in our institution a place of shelter and protection during the declining years of an eventful life. She entered the home 12th mo. 19th, 1887, her age being given as 108. At that time her faculties were fairly good and she spent much of her time in sewing carpet rags. For the past two years she has done little but wait in patient, cheerful resignation for the great change that comes to all.

She was born in Frogtown, near Valley Forge, and at the age of four years she was placed in the family of Reese Howel. She says she remembers the years 1777 and '78, when the Revolutionary forces were camped at Valley Forge. On one occasion the soldiers came to her master's house. The family secreted themselves and left her to direct them where to find all the food they wanted. When they had freely helped themselves they left, the leader saying to her, '' God bless you, little one, you have done well for me and my men, may you live long and do well.'' If this account be correct, she must be considerably older than the age given at her admission to the Home would make her. However this may be, there appears to be ample proof that she has passed the one-hundredth mile-stone and is one of the oldest persons living in this vicinity.

To the President and Managers of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons :

Dear Friends-

During the past year we have had a great deal of sickness, much of which has been quite serious, and yet the mortality has been limited. Many of the deaths have been caused from exhaustion.

The house has been kept in excellent condition. Sanitary affairs are satisfactory.

RULES.

RULE I.—The Matron shall have the general charge of the Home, and keep it in neat order, under the direction of the Committee of Management. She is to enforce the rules and see that suitable nourishment is provided for the sick. She must be respectful and kind to every one in the Home, and attentive (without partiality) as their circumstances require. She will promptly check any quarreling or other improper conduct in the inmates, and if necessary report the same to the Visiting Committee. She shall keep a record of all clothing sent to the Home, and furnish the Committee with a monthly account thereof. She will be expected to go through the house about 10 P. M., and see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished.

RULE 2.—No person shall be admitted to the Home but such as bring satisfactory testimonials of the propriety of their conduct and the respectability of their character.

RULE 3.—Those received in the Home must be at least 60 years of age, and shall pay to the Treasurer the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars. All who are admitted will be on probation for a period of six months. If their conduct during that time is not satisfactory, they will be retained no longer, but will be charged board for the time they may be residents in the Home, at the rate of two and one-half dollars per week, which is to be deducted from the sum paid for admission, the balance of which is to be returned to the party paying the same.

RULE 4.—Any property or personal effects which an applicant may be possessed of must be made over for the benefit of the Home, prior to admission therein; and if any inherit property whilst in the Home, and prefer remaining, the said property must likewise be transferred to the Institution; all such transfers being recorded in a book kept for that purpose.

RULE 5.—Colored persons over the age of sixty, of respectable character, and furnishing satisfactory references, may be boarded in the institution upon such terms as the Managers may decide, but shall be subjected to the same rules and have no privileges different from other inmates. Satisfactory security must be given for the regular payment of the board, previous to their admission.

RULE 6.—No boarder shall be received or continued in the Home to the exclusion of those entirely dependent. Two weeks' notice, however, must be given for the removal of any boarder.

RULE 7.—A register shall be kept of the names of all applicants, the persons by whom they are recommended, their place of residence, and the report of the Committee on Admission thereon, and any information that may be deemed important.

RULE 8.—Those who are pensioners on any benevolent institution or society, it is expected, will have their pensions continued to assist in their support, and at their death the funeral expenses shall be paid by said societies.

RULE 9.—None but the Physician of the institution or his substitute shall attend the inmates, unless he should request a consultation with another practitioner. If any of the inmates or their friends desire other than the regular Physician of the Home, they may, with the consent of the attending Physician, be at liberty to employ such; provided the same shall be without expense or any responsibility on the part of the institution.

RULE 10.—After rising in the morning, and again before retiring at night, all who are able shall be assembled in a suitable room, and a chapter from the Bible read to them, after which an opportunity shall be offered for silent or vocal worship.

RULE 11.—Religious meetings shall be held in the Home on the First day of the week, for those not desirous of attending elsewhere.

RULE 12.—Any of the inmates desirous of visiting their friends (on their written invitations) must obtain permission from the Matron, nor absent themselves at any time without permission.

RULE 13.—No stimulants or liquors to be used in the Home unless ordered by the Physician, and then to be administered by the Matron.

RULE 14.—All visitors shall be properly treated and shown through the Home, especially those visiting for religious purposes. Visitors will not be admitted before 10 A. M., nor after 5 P. M., except in special cases.

Thirty-Fourth Annual Report of the RULE 15.—All that is necessary for the comfortable support of the inmates of the Home will be furnished from the funds of the institution; no individual, therefore, will, on any account, be permitted to solicit assistance.

RULE 16.—All inmates are expected to render themselves generally useful, as far as their strength will permit.

RULE 17.—Smoking and the use of tobacco in any form is strictly prohibited, except in such place as designated by the Matron.

RULE 18.—The bell will be rung ten minutes before each meal, and all who are able will promptly repair to the dining-room. When seated, a suitable pause shall be observed. No inmate will be allowed to carry food from the table. The sick and infirm only will be accommodated with meals upstairs.

RULE 19.—No inmate will be permitted to interfere or find fault with Matron or assistants; but if they think they have cause for complaint they must apply to the Monthly Committee, who will receive their statement and take such action thereon as may be proper.

RULE 20.—To preserve harmony in the family the strictest attention should be paid to the rules of the Home. For the first and second offence, the Matron will admonish the offender. For the third, she will report them to the House Committee ; and for the fourth, removal from the Home, if so approved by the Board of Managers.

We would invite attention to the "Adger Anti-Slavery Repository" in a room on the first floor, opposite the Inmates Parlor. R. M. Adger has for several years been collecting the likenesses of those active in the anti-slavery struggle, as well as other momentoes of that eventful period, and has now donated them to the Home.

EVENTS DURING THE YEAR.

July 4th, 1897.

No demonstration was made, though the building was decorated with the national colors. The inmates were given the usual treat of ice cream and home made cakes.

September 18th.

At 8 P. M., Bishop Grant visited the Home, in company with Mr. John H. Jackson, daughter and friend of Bermuda. They inspected the house and cold storage. Bishop Grant and Mr. Jackson addressed the Inmates who were assembled in the Chapel at "Class Meeting."

November 11th.

The Rev. J. M. Dobbins and wife, gave a Stereoptican entertainment, interspersed with the singing of sacred songs. The exhibition had a novel feature. At intervals selections from the Scriptures or a Hymn was thrown on the sheet instead of a picture, and the audience was invited to join in reading or singing. The Inmates were highly delighted with this and joined in heartily. The expenses of the exhibition were paid by Henry Laing, the beloved friend of the "old folks."

November 25th.

Thanksgiving Day, was enjoyed hugely by the Inmates. At morning prayer the Housekeeper gave a little history of the antiquity and true meaning of this, the oldest of the feast days. At 11 A. M., Rev. Mr. Jones conducted a religious service in the Chapel. On the table before the pulpit was a large pyramid of vegetables of all kinds and several varieties of fruit, from the stores of the Home. The old people were much interested in this display of the fruits of the Harvest and said Thanksgiving day would henceforth have a dearer meaning to them. The dinner was bountiful and everyone had as much as he or she could eat of turkey, cranberry sauce, celery, sweet potatoes, and desert of grapes. In the afternoon Mrs. Haviland and Mrs. Haas entertained them with singing and reading, Mrs. F. E. W. Harper with reminiscences of slave life and Mission work. Her daughter recited a dialect poem by Paul Dunbar, the negro poet. In the evening Thos. Walter made an address and two little girls recited beautiful selections.

Christmas Day. At morning prayer the male employés sang appropriate hymns. They were rendered in a fervent and beautiful manner. The Housekeeper read the Second Chapter of Matthew, which tells the story of the birth of the Saviour. The old folks were very much pleased with this special beginning of the day. Our dinner was abundant and well cooked. We had 22 large turkeys. After singing a few hymns the Engineer and Housekeeper distributed from the Christmas tree, 175 oranges which were given by Mr. John G. Schober. Every one rejoiced at the good things of the day and expressed themselves as thoroughly happy. The relatives and patrons of individual inmates sent useful and fancy articles, as gifts, as they have been accustomed to do in the past.

December 28th,

The King's Daughters, of Central Presbyterian Church, recited and sang in the Chapel and furnished ice cream and cake for the household.

February 22nd.

The Quaker City Associations, composed of colored persons, entertained the Inmates of the Home by singing, recitations and music by a string band. A band of young men and women from Bethel Church sang of the rise and progress of Methodism, bringing in the names and special work of their Bishops and female leaders. These kind friends also provided ice cream and cake for the whole family.

February 24th.

At 4 o'clock P. M., John Hutchinson, the last of the original family of singers, who were famous for their devotion to the Anti-Slavery cause, sang for the inmates. There was a large attendance of the old people and a few who had heard of his intention at the Peace meeting on the 22nd. Many of the old people shook hands with him and told him of the old songs they had heard years ago. He was very much touched and delighted by his visit. He is in his 78th year and his voice is as sweet and mellow as in his youth.

April 2nd.

Mrs. Marling, an African Missionary, addressed the family in the Chapel from 1 to 2 o'clock. She exhibited specimens of clothing and told of the cruel way in which the aged were treated in Africa. She recited the Lord's prayer and a hymn in native language.

At 7.30 P. M., the King's Daughters (Mrs. Jones and Miss Deming) gave an entertainment.

April 10th.

Dr. J. Wheaton Smith preached at 10.30 A. M. It was a most excellent discourse on "Sins of commission and omission."

Easter Exercises.

The male employés sang Easter hymns at the early morning prayer.

April 25th.

Six ministers were sent by the Union A. M. E. Church to visit the Home. They were here attending Conference and represented several states. Benjamin Wood, a Friend, from Toronto, Canada, visited the Home in the afternoon and gave a religious service.

April 28th.

May 6th.

May 22nd.

A silver goblet and plate to be used in the administration of the Lord's supper were given by the "old folks." They were presented to the Home, in their name, by Calvin W. Mitchell, and received with appropriate remarks by their beloved friend Henry M. Laing.

May 23rd.

Twenty-four varieties of shrubs and annuals were planted in a circular bed in front of the Home. Henry M. Laing assisted in putting them out. This cluster of plants is lovingly called by the family, the "Henry M. Laing Circle," and will be kept in order and cared for in memory of the friend who went "in and out" and labored for them more than thirty years. There were planted at the same time eleven shade trees, and thirty California Privets to be used as a hedge.
