

Book

B

No. 339 Philadelphia, May 188*6*

TO DUPLICATE THIS BOOK, STATE ABOVE NUMBER AND DATE.

DANDO PRINTING AND PUBLISHING CO., Blank Book Makers,
PRINTERS, PUBLISHERS, & LITHOGRAPHERS.
COUNTING ROOM SUPPLIES IN GENERAL.
34 South Third Street, PHILAD'A, PA.

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
 "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"
 I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
 relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys, rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
 which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 5th day of June A. D. 1856

Witness,

E. Chester

Hannah N. Loath

Entered April 14th 1856 (aged 66)

Scott

1 Chair

Died July 1856

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 5th day of June A. D. 1856

Witness,
E. Chester
Emilie Alaine

Entered May 17 1856 (Aged 69)

Bed & bedding
2 Chairs
2 Tables
1 Stool
Left the Asylum

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 5th day of June A. D. 1846

Adeline Neff

Witness,

E. Chittus

Entered May 21st 1846 aged 46

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 14th day of June A. D. 1886..

Witness,

Hannah M. Jenks.

Hewietta Saville

Entered June 9th 1886 Aged 68 years.

Book Shelves.
Camp Chair.

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 4th day of November A. D. 1886.

Angeline Patton

Witness,

Mary Coates

Entered November 1st 1886 Agnes

Deed 10 No 18, 1888

agrd 80

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 10 day of November A. D. 1886

Witness,

Rachel A. Keedy

Elizabeth A. Farnum

Entered November 8/86 Age 78

- Bed & pair blankets
- Pillows & bolster -
- Rocking Chair
- 1 commode

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 16th day of December A. D. 1886.

Witness,

Laura H. R. Colwell

Jane Turner

Jane Turner

Entered Dec. 14th 1886

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 9th day of February A. D. 1887.

Witness,

Elizabeth M. Dale Martha H. Ernest

Entered 8th of February 1887.
aged 77 yrs.

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
 "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"
 I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
 relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
 rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
 to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
 hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
 that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
 which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 22nd. day of February A. D. 1887.

Witness,

Rachel S. J. Randolph Hannah Butler

Feathered bed
 Bolster & pillows

Entered Feb. 22nd. 1887
 Aged 65 years

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 16th day of April A. D. 18

Witness,

Mary Coates

L. Trunk

Margaret Buchanan

Entered April 16th 1887

Aged 70 years -

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 26 day of June A. D. 18 87.

Witness,

Clara Comegys

Maria S. Hurtt

Entered the 26th of June 1887

Aged 67

1 Trunk
1 Table

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 22nd day of Aug A. D. 1887.

Witness,

Clara Comey

Arrived Mather

Entered the 1st July 1887

Aged 77.

- 1. Trunk
- 1. Sewing Machine
- 3. Blankets
- 1. Rocking Chair
- 1. Commode
- 1. Bolster
- 1. Clock

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 22nd day of August A. D. 1887.

Witness,

Clara Conroy

M. C. Williams

Entered the 11th of July 1887

Age 72 -

- 1 Trunk -
- 1 Clock -
- 1 Rocking Chair -

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
 "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"
 I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
 relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
 rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
 to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
 hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
 that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
 which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 23^d day of November A. D. 1887 .

Witness,
 Laura Colwell Susan M. Crosley

- 1 Bedstead
- and
- Bedding
- Bureau
- Washstand
- Table
- Lounge
- 3 chairs -

Entered Nov. 1st 1887
 Aged 62 -

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 23rd day of November A. D. 1887.

Witness,
Laura R. Colwell

Susan Howey

2 chairs
Bedding

Entered Nov. 16th 1887

Aged 79 -

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 23^d day of November A. D. 1887.

Witness,
Lana Colwell

Mary E. Robinson

1 Chair
Bedding -

Entered Nov. 18th 1887
Aged 64 -

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 23rd day of November A. D. 1887.

Witness,
Laura Colwell

Eliza B. Durgan
Her mark

Bedding
1 chair

Entered Nov. 14th 1887 -
Aged 65 -

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 23^d. day of November A. D. 1887.

Witness, Laura Colwell.

Elizabeth Harris
Recd. mark X
Entered Nov. 18th 1887
Aged 75-

1 chair
Bedding -

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 23rd day of November A. D. 1887.

Witness, Laura Colwell

Susan Spence
Susan Montee
Mrs Montee

Bed and bedding

Entered Nov. 23rd 1887

Bureau

Aged 69.

Washstand

Table

4 chairs

1 carpet

1 Commode

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 30th day of November A. D. 1887.

Witness,

Clara Comings-

Margaret Gault

Furnished her room entirely -
1 trunk

Entered Nov. 16. 1887

Aged - 63

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this ~~Nov 30~~ day of November A. D. 18 87.

Witness,

Clara Comegys

Catherine Weil

Feather bed
Pillows

Entered - Nov. 29 -

Aged - 66.

- 1/2 doz. Sheets
- 1/2 " pillow cases
- 1/2 " Towels
- 1 1/4 comfortable
- 1 spread
- 1 chair
- 1 clock
- 1 trunk

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 30 day of November A. D. 1887.

Witness,

Clara Conroy

Facy Roberts

Bed & bedding.

Entered Nov. 26.

3 Towels

Aged 67

1 Chair

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 14. day of Dec. A. D. 18 87.

Witness,

Ellen B. Wheeler.

- 2 Pillows
- 2 Comfortables.
- 6 Sheets
- 7 Pillow Cases
- 6 Towels
- Rocking Chair
- Commode

Anna Howell

Entered Dec. 8.

Aged 77.

Ms 107 24

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 14. day of Dec. A. D. 1887.

Witness,
Ellen B. Wheeler
Bed & Bedding
Chamber set Clock

Mrs Catharine A Lee
Entered Dec. 1.
Aged 71.

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 28th day of Dec A. D. 1887

Witness,
Lydia S. Finckman
Bed and Bedding
Sewing machine
1 trunk,
3 towels.

Judith E. Robinson
Entered Dec 23rd 1887
Aged 73

Dec 7 Mo. 1889

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 28th day of Dec A. D. 18 87

Witness,

- Lydia S. Hinchman
- Bed and Bedding
- Rocking Chair
- Trunk
- 4 Sheets
- 5 pillowcases
- 8 towels
- 6 napkins

Sarah A. Smith

Entered Dec 22nd

Aged 76.

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 28th day of Dec A. D. 1887.

- Witness,
 Lydia S. Finckman
 Bedstead and Springs
 Bed and Bedding
 4 towels
 Washstand
 Bureau
 Towel rack
 Sewing-table
 Couch
 2 chairs
 Set of china

Maria B. Zepp X
Entered Dec 27. 87
Aged 63

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 11th day of January A. D. 1888.

Witness,
Anna Garnall.

Lizzie Davis
1 Rocking-chair.

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 4th day of February A. D. 1888.

Witness, Lydia Baldwin
H. V. Spachawke. Dated Jan 17. 1888 Entered Rec. 7th 1887
Aged 68.

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------|
| 1 quilt | linings |
| 1 pattern-bed | materials for aprons |
| 1 bolster - 2 pillows | 7 napkins |
| 1 white spread | 13 towels |
| 3 blankets | 8 aprons |
| 5 pt. shoes | 5 shawls |
| 2 bonnets | 1 quilted skirt |
| 1 water-proof | 3 muffs |
| 13 dresses | 8 un-made dresses |
| 1 coat | 12 prs. stockings |
| 7 skirts | 7 chemises |
| 1/2 doz. New napkins | 13 prs. gloves |
| 1 umbrella | 6 prs. drawers |
| 1 lace shawl | 1 pr. sleeves |
| 2 red flannel skirts (new) | 2 prs. shawls |
| part piece unbleached muslin | 15 handkerchiefs |
| | 4 night gowns |

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
 "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"
 I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
 relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
 rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
 to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
 hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
 that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
 which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 27 day of February A. D. 1888 .

Witness,

Clara Conroy

- 1 Feather bed
- 1 Bolster
- 3 pillows
- 2 sheets
- 2 pillow cases
- 1 Quilt
- 1 Counterpane

Mary Stuart

Entered February 18th 1888

Age 77

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 29th day of February A. D. 1888.

Witness, Margaret M. Robinson

Rachel S. J. Randolph

Margaret M. Robinson

Entered Feb. 27th. 1888

- 1 Feathered bed
- 3 Pillows
- 1 Bolster
- 4 Sheets
- 6 Pillow cases

The certificates of Penna RR Stock & Conn Lot. Bonds spell the name both

Dud 4 Mo 25, 1889 between 6 & 7 o'clock P.M.

Robinson
& Robinson

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

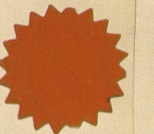

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or to which I may be entitled.

This Agreement witnesseth that in addition to the agreement signed by me upon being admitted to the Home of the ^{Indigent Widows and} ^{Single Women's Society.} ^{of Philadelphia.} I do further agree and bind myself in consideration of the benefits afforded me by allowing me to become an inmate of said Home that in the event of my Dow who has been absent from Philadelphia since the year 1876 returning, I will give up and relinquish all right to remain in said Home

In witness whereof I have here-unto set my hand and seal this 8th day of March 1888.

Signed sealed and delivered in the Presence of Mr. J. Miller

Isabella F. Bush

James McGowan

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 29th day of March A. D. 1888.

Witness,

Anna Garnall

Isabella F. Bush

Entered March 27th - 1888 -

aged 66 years -

- 1 Feather Bed
- 1 Hair Mattress -
- 2 Pillows -
- 2 Bolsters -
- 1 Commode
- 2 Blankets -
- 2 Comfortables -
- 8 Sheets -
- 2 Counterpieces -
- 8 pers. Pillow-cases -
- 7 Bolster-cases -
- Pitcher & Basin -
- 1 Clock
- 1 Rocking Chair

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 14th day of June A. D. 1888.

Witness,

Clara Comegys

Mary a Mahey

- 5 sheets
- 4 pr. pillow cases
- 3 bolster cases
- 4 blankets
- 1 1/2 doz towels
- 1 Rocking Chair
- 1 Commode
- 2 white spreads

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 20th day of November A. D. 1888.

Witness,

Elizabeth J Roberts

Clara Comings

Bed & bedding.

Bolster & three pillows.

1 trunk

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 1st day of December A. D. 1888.

Witness,
Clara Conroy

Clara Sabine

Bed & bedding
Rocking Chair
Lounge

Rocking Chair
Lounge

In consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"
I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 30th day of November A. D. 1887.

Elizabeth B. Baker

Clara Conroy

Clara Sabine

Elizabeth B. Baker

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 10 day of Dec. A. D. 1888.

Witness,

Clara Comey

Susan E. Warner

- Bed
- Boleter & pillows
- 1 pr. Blankets
- 2 Quilts
- Rocking Chair
- Trunk-

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 12 day of Dec. A. D. 1888.

Witness,

Clara Comgys

Adela Rick

Entered the Home

Dec. 13. 1888

aged 73 yrs.

- 1 lounge
- 2 rocking chairs
- 1 sewing machine
- 1 commode
- 1 feather bed
- 2 pillows
- 1 pr. blankets
- 3 pr. sheets
- 1 trunk

~~179~~

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 5th day of March A. D. 1889

Witness,
Clara Comypp Elizabeth McVatt

- 1 Feather bed
- Boleter
- Pillows
- 1 Rocking Chair
- 1 Towel rack
- Shool
- Trunk

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
 "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"
 I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
 relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
 rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
 to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
 hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
 that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
 which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 17th day of January A. D. 1889

Clara Gomezys
 Maria K. Sewall
 aged 76-1 Trunk -
 1 Bed
 1 Blanket
 1 Pillow
 1 Chair
 1 Table
 1 Trunk

1276

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
 "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
 relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
 rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
 to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
 hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
 that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
 which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this 17th day of January A. D. 1889.

Witness,
 Clara Gomezys

Maria K. Sewall,
 aged 76-

1 Trunk -

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby ^{grant bargain sell} assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all ^{Real and Personal Estate} moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness ^{and seal} my hand this seventh day of May A. D. 18 89

Witnesses

The words "grant bargain sell" in 3d line "Real and Personal Estate" in 5th line and "and seal" in the last line being first introduced W. H. Wilson

Noticé de Lois

May M. Vaux

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
"The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"

I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this day of A. D. 18 .

Witness,

[Faint, mirrored text from the reverse side of the page, including the words "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia" and "I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever relinquish to the said..."]

[Faint, mirrored text from the reverse side of the page, including "Witness my hand this... day of... A. D. 18..."]

[Faint, mirrored handwritten signatures and text from the reverse side of the page, including "Witness" and "Mary M. Jones"]

IN consideration of being admitted into the Asylum of
 "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia,"
 I, the undersigned, do hereby assign, transfer, set over and forever
 relinquish to the said "The Indigent Widows' and Single Women's Society of Philadelphia," for the use of said Society, all moneys,
 rights, credits, goods, chattels and effects now belonging to me or
 to which I may hereafter at any time become entitled. I do also
 hereby engage and promise that I will comply with the rules of the Institution, and in everything be subject to the regulations of the Board of Managers so long as I shall remain an inmate of the Institution. In case I am dismissed from the Asylum, I agree
 that there shall be deducted out of the moneys and other property
 which I have hereby assigned to said Society, a sum equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) for each year I shall have remained in said Institution, and the balance, if any, shall be returned to me in full discharge of all claims upon said Society.

Witness my hand this day of A. D. 18 .

Witness,

