My dear boy- the stage is going at nine instead of two so I've no time to write a letter. Received your two yesterday, am so glad you find the weather so pleasant. All the camp left this morning so we are going to the mill to-morrow. Everything has been as peaceful and quiet as possible, except of course our Germans, charades, etc. They are great fun in the evening-

Thanks my boy for the books, they look delightful. The box arrived yesterday, we were all hungry as soon as we saw it- we began on jelly last night and found it very nice- O. Hillard helped us enjoy it at supper. Good bye dear, you must remember to tell me about your ears.

Your ever loving,
Daisy
