

Transcription_HSP_17195

[page 1]

126 East 17th St.

My darling little boy-

There is no use in saying I miss you, for of course you know that! But what I am afraid you won't remember dearest is that even if I haven't the opportunity of showing my boy how much I love him I am thinking and feeling it just as much- you will try to think of that always dear won't you, instead of thinking me cold and disappointing- If you can come on for Thanksgiving it will be just the greatest fun that ever was- then I should see you day after to-morrow- splendid- I know you will come Fuzzy boy, so do you I think. No doubt you feel badly at the idea of missing your beloved relations' dinner. Still these disappointments will come in this life sometimes- so try and bear this one like a man- Good bye my darling precious boy hug yourself forty times for me, and never never forget that I love you better than anything else in the world.

[page 2]

[page 3]

Your own most loving,

Daisy.

Monday morning.

[page 4]

Mr. Lawrence Lewis. Jr.
506 Walnut Street.
Philadelphia.
Penna.

D.K.
Nov 22 1881
(77)

[Postmark New York Nov 21 10AM F 81; postage stamp for 3 cents]

[page 5]

[Postmark Philadelphia. PA. Nov 21 5PM Rec'd.]