My precious,

Your N.Y's Eve letter came just bef. sup. So lovely to receive + I'm so pleased about Jan. Rankin, you told me about him yest. And Mrs. S's meeting I enjoyed freely. I told E. about these things tonight. I don't hand over your letters because I like to keep them just for myself, but I tell the things that interest her. Please ask Ship to find out Miss Sopley's hosp. address [illegible] if he can, + I'll visit her there. I'm so sorry about it. I can only see E. ½ hr. per day so far. Am hoping for more next week. Dr. H. wants me to do

N. [illegible] again, so I'm going tomorrow for over [Sund.], back in time for lunch Mon. Aunt J. most hospitable + lovely when I telephoned about it today. It is a good time to go on E's account too, for R. will be here + 2 w'l'd be too many for her. They are to use my rooms, coming in over the bridge better than E's 3rd [floor] room, for [guests?]. I'm going to send some of your [suff.] cash to E.Y.S. as pledge for their meeting if you are willing. I wish I could go to the luncheon on the 14th of Jan. Can you go + will you take some over? I'd like to order 2 or 3 tickets if you can use them.

Mrs. Halleck had a lovely tea this aft. at 4.30. Patients + nurses + all the doctors. This house is most lovely. They too. Next week Dr. H. says he is going to begin [nerve?] [plup.?] exercise. Then reading tests. Did I write you that? Good bye precious. There are so many things I want to tell you its hard to stop. Once is that I'm going to write a masterpiece to answer to be [illegible] H. K.K. when I know how long E. might to be here. I told her + we laughed over it + she approves. Says Mother told her to let her know when the 100 was gone. So she endlessly means E. to have what she needs to do this up all right. Of course H.K.K. will spot up. Happy New Year lovely. I am very dependent. More love than I can tell. Mother.
