Dearest Mother,

We really got off, altho' at one time when I couldn't find case containing train tickets steamer tickets everything, it did seem as if we'd better stay at home. [Jean?] was at the station when we were trying to check trains [          ] just [          ] [by our?]

train started. Train was very calm + peaceful or I should leave bust. B. came along with my suit case + there they all were + we got things done just in time.

Tomorrow he will spend seeing the [Hover's?] (Anne Davis's child) + the Ballards + I shall spend with Alice Paul + my pals. We arrive at 8 a.m. + leave [illegible] at 8 p.m.

I'm going to church too.

We are due at the Grand Canyon Wednesday at 8 a.m. + have 12 hours there. San Francisco [] at [] on Thursday exciting + leave on steamer Tenyo Maru on Saturday at 12. Nice to have day in San Fran. Can get things we may have forgotten & want [crayons?].

I'm so glad you like the little paragraph. I have the film some where + we can have a better enlargement made from that. I think i can find it. Will attend to it.

Ship + Esther gave me a lovely camera. The kind you write on. Ester B's only arrived this morning - very quick performance + a nice [jacket?] to wear at night on train. I'll mail it back to her from San Fran. We go to the St. Francis Hotel San Francisco. The steamer's address is

S.S. Tenyo Maru

Japanese Line

Sailing for Yokohama Nov. 11

San Francisco Cal.

I ordered a lovely new [          ] grey [          ] braid last week + it hasn't come - isn't it too provoking?

Maybe in time meet me on the steamer.

We have everything to make us comfortable + your lovely purple bag to make me luxurious.

Best love to Father + Madge. This train scrambles like an egg.

Your loving daughter

Dora.
