Nov 3-

Dearest Mother,

We enjoyed Esther's visit very much. She left at 3.55. I do hope her [husband?] will not give her any [more?] trouble.

[Howard Hanneman?] [our old (truly) faithful is with us - he is always a most lovely companion.

We are pretty well packed up, but there are still a bit of these hurried small things to look over that I feel like throwing away without taking the time to decide between things.

[Page 2] We are taking "[Intimate?] China" the fat volume you gave Bob some time ago - we shall read it in China - probably B has read it already, but he will enjoy it more with all the things around him than are in the book.

Martha [Bruckerhorff?] sent me "Mr Britling Sees it Through" by Wells. We shall read that on the steamer. Then I have French books and we have ["Still Jim?"] from Robert which we shall enjoy - Miss [Hamilton?] told us to take Poland Water [+ fruit?] on the steamer - She says the table is perfectly awful - We shall have 25 days of it. Good night + my love to you all -

Your devoted daughter
Dora
