

Transcription_HSP_16910

[page 1]

York Club
52 East Fifty-Fourth Street
New York
Telephone Plaza 454

Darling daughter

It is awfully nice- just as creepy[?] & pretty & fresh & lovely as the M. W.[?] in reverse. Am so glad I came- You should have seen the ? ! how[?] I'm ever to get to C. again I can't imagine- unless I send for ? Curtier[?] (or her precious daughter) to pack her bag. Ship & I came up per motor w. Aunt to and then had it for an hour & went[?] him[?] to ourselves- then back here, he[?] & I, & had a lovely lovely time talking- I th[?] in ? about 6 & that I'd go up & change her blouse for dinner- S. looked at her watch & it was Y ! no changing now nothing- he had to leave at 7:25 before dessert. I came back and ate ? & it was very good- such nice food- Ship enjoyed it too.

[page 2]

I wish nice things weren't over so quickly- I did so hate to have you leave yesterday- it didn't seem as if we'd begun to be together when it was all over-

[page 3]

I had a nice evening with Arthur & Magdeleine & we[?] heard E[?] Fredman- ? at 10.30 wh.wasn't bad.

Lulu & Anita are coming to the Lee[?] tomorrow- U[?] Adamson[?] who goes[?] is in the wife of the police c[?]

Good night dear- this is to show you her new address. Your loving Mother-