Dearest Mother, it was lovely to find your letter on my return yesterday from Atlantic City - thanks much - I had a nice visit with Dr. Shaw, who was lovely to me as always. We are going out presently carrying our banners. Policemen & policewomen & plain clothes men on the sidewalk thick as blackberries. There is no law against what we are doing, remember that. Love to father and [Madie?] I'm expecting to enjoy [Fourth?] July in jail. Your loving D.
