

[postcard verso preprinted with green ink including postage]
THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS
U.S. POSTAL CARD ONE CENT JEFFERSON

[Postage cancellation mark in black ink]
Washington, D.C.
Nov 3
8:30 P.M.
1917

Miss Louise Lewis
146 W. Lehigh Ave
Philadelphia
Pa.

[postcard recto]

Nov. 2. 17

D + D -

I am beginning to breathe well here - Have everything well in hand now, and feel ready to take on some extra work - The lease is signed, praise be! & now am trying to get the present people out - also trying to be allowed to remain here until after our conference in Dec. Also arranging, hopefully, to get the theatre we want for our mass meeting, & not the one we don't want. And our [picket supper?] for our 10 released tomorrow - Everyone is splendid, such [faithful?] devoted workers - they are a joy. Am going now to Café de l'Enfant for lunch after a conference (conference sounds grander than talk, doesn't it?) with our agent who is trying to get things arranged for as we wish - Hope to go to [Belair?] for a day, tomorrow - My bestest to you

M . . . er