Nov. 9 1917

Darling daughter,

I got back this a.m. + have had a shampoo. The N.Y. vote is so interesting. 94,000 majority for suff. Only 2,000 majority outside of N.Y. city. In the city 92,000 maj. They got it by the labor vote + they were interested in the pickets! The socialists talked of us (the picketing) at all their meetings + the soc. vote was phenomenal. Last time only 32,000. This time 150,000. I couldn't understand the situation until I heard all this in N.Y. yesterday.

Had a wonderful meeting at the Ritz Carlton. Ball room jammed, people standing all along the wall + in the doorstep for 3 hours. We dressed of us in prison clothes + walked in led by the warden who had been fired for being kind to us, + the whole audience rose respectfully + stood for us + clapped. We raised in cash + pledges between 5 + 6 thousand + I saw a woman afterwards who will get us 5 thous. from somebody, + a little here greets us first. Mrs [Could?] ~~promising~~ sending 1 thous. + promising same in Dec. + Jan. + a lady I saw on Thursday has done the same - sent 1 + will send same in Dec. + Jan. So I have no worry about finances at present.

Miss Paul + Rose Winslow are being forcibly fed. Inhumane + abominable. I have just sent a letter protesting to the commissioner who is in authority. Gardiner by name. Mrs. Kent has a badly sprained ankle, but will, I think, picket in spite of it and an irate husband. We have about 53. They keep arresting. 2 from Utah, some from Mississippi, as wed lady from Florida, Colorado, + other states.

Please send this to Shippen + Esther and all of you keep lots of love from me my beloveds.

Mother

Please answer Reba's letter. I can't. No time. Tell her you've been in K. all the time. I only rec'd it yesterday.
