November 5, 1917.

Miss Louise Lewis,
146 West Lehigh Avenue,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dearest Daughter:

I hope to come late tomorrow afternoon in time for dinner with Miss Burnham and spend the night with her. Will telephone you from there and want to see you first thing in the morning on Wednesday. Can probably come up to 146 West Lehigh to do it. I shall be going to New York for the meeting there at the Ritz-Carlton on Thursday afternoon; probably spend Thursday night with you in Philadelphia; back to Washington on Friday for an executive committee meeting. We had a wonderful meeting last night. One hundred fifty people and such good speeches from our released prisoners. We raised a thousand dollars. I gave your check ($10.00) for a special purpose, and am so glad to have it for that. I will explain when I see you. Shippen also sent such a generous check. I was so glad to have it to give.

With love,

Mother
