March 3, 1919.

Mrs. Henry K. Kelly,
West Chester, Penna.

Dearest Mother:

Louise is very bright this morning; seems to have more strength than yesterday. I think when the doctor comes he will tell her that she may sit up for a little while. The out of doors world is so glorious that I long to get her into it, and shall do so the very first moment I am permitted. I enclose a letter from Howard which I thought you would like to see.

With a great deal of love to Father and Madge, and much to your dear self.

From your devoted daughter

Dora.
