Mrs. Henry Clay Kelly,
323 So. 17th St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.
Dearest Mother:

I received your condolences on Maryland this morning, your letter having been forwarded to me from Cavel Hall via Philadelphia. Thank you so much for thinking of me at that time; of course I knew you would do so. I really was not grievously disappointed because i had never expected to win Maryland, and only worked there because one must do one's best with each state, as one cannot be sure of losing even the worst.

My friend Dr. Lawrence of Louisville, Ky., is visiting Miss Paul and me here at headquarters, and is a most interesting guest. She is going to Japan early in April to open a neighborhood house in Tokio, and has promised to stay for three years. She will do medical work there and will be assisted in the social work by others. I am giving her a letter to our ambassador, Mr. Roland Norris. I am not sure whether he is an ambassador or a minister, so I am a little at a loss as to how to address him. I am also giving her a letter to Louise's college grind, Mochi Kawai, who is at the head of the Y.W.C.A. in Japan, and whose headquarters are in Tokio. She is very lovely and most interesting, and she was perfect to Bob and me when we were in Tokio.

Last night Mrs. Harvey Wiley, one of my best friends dined here with us; also Mrs. Wainwright, wife of Rear-Admiral Wainwright; and Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest, who is the best known woman pageant producer in this country. We have known her well ever since we began working here in Washington/

This afternoon we are having a little tea for Dr. Lawrence. She leaves us on Saturday for New York and Boston.

It was lovely to see you on Monday and Tuesday,

Mrs. H.C.K.--3

but I wish the time did not fly by so quickly. My visits are always too short.

Very lovingly, your daughter,

Dora ~~[strickethrough]~~ Lew ~~[/strickethrough]~~
