Ap. 12.

Dearest daughter,

You will be interested in Kate Sever's letter. I sent you the cheque, signed this time, with great promptitude. Mrs. Wood, in acknowledging my contrib. from me, tells me that the McCrackin furlough has been delayed a year - on account of the extreme youth of the trains - + expenses attendant in journey of a family of that kind - so many babies - I think the decision very wise, but am sorry they aren't coming this year.

I will answer Laetitia's note about Margie's wedding immediately. Am writing Chaleston to send a chop platter; I sent Esther one + she seemed to like it.

Ship writes that he is choosing my present to Arthur + Marie, + will perhaps take them along! I am much disap. I thought S. or E. would choose for me, but never dreamed they w'd tell A. + M. they were doing it. I feel now as if I were wrong making an impersonal contrib.! I'll never do it this way again.

Much love, dear daughter.

From mother.

Candy arrived - many thanks. Did you change, or do I owe you?
