Woman's Party H'dq'ters

Dover. April 14. 1920

Dearest Mother,

I had hoped to run up to Phila. today, but have found it impossible to leave Delaware. We may get through with our work next week, or it may last us for another month. We can't tell until after the Repub. State Convention, which is to be held here in Dover next Tuesday. The Convention will (if they act according to the plan that has been made) pass a strong resolution endorsing ratification, and it may possibly enable us to get it through the ~~resol~~ legislature the next day. If we can't, that is if we haven't the votes, the legislature will recess and we will have to ~~vote~~ bring in Delaware to work all over the state during the recess - + then bring in Delaware as the 36th state.

I shall, of course, be at Margie's wedding next week, and hope you are going to stay with Bob + Helen so that I can see you there as well as at the wedding. I haven't sent Margie my present yet. Have waited hoping to be able to choose it myself - + of course can get nothing here. Dover is a darling place, and is looking most lovely in its new spring dress. Howard may be coming here to speak to the legislature on the bill which affects the prohibition amendment in this state, he is expected at 1.30.

Very lovingly your daughter,

Dora.
