

Transcription_HSP_17041

[page 1]

National Woman's Party
Lafayette Square
Washington, D.C

Dearest Mother,

I thought you might like to see the enclosed- Isn't Dr. B. a dear to say so frankly that he was mistaken?

My beautiful boy is beside me on my desk- I carried over about a bushel of papers in it this morning- It is the most beautiful one I have ever seen- thank you.

Am going to a tea this aft. to the art club- only a few of us, therefore very nice.

Tomorrow dining with 3 others & going to [Keith's?]- very unusual dissipation, for we usually work in the evening.

[page 2]

I had a talk with the President of the Sears, Roebuck Co. of Chicago this morning- He is Chairman of supplies of the Council of Nat'l Defence- I was amused when I gave my name to one of the men, he said "that's a very familiar name to me" and I innocently replied "Does it happen to be yours?" He said no, but that he had seen it so often in the papers- so I knew that he knew he was talking to a jail bird, so I showed him my pin, which he examined with great interest.

My love to you- when the trains run better I want to go up to Phila. for a couple of days to see my family.

Love to Pa- M- Your devoted d't'r Dora