

Transcription_HSP_17059

[page 1]

Box 235, Lyme
Connecticut

June 24
[St. J. Baptist]

Darling.

Its a perf day after heavy rain storm yesterday- The painting will be finished to day I think- E. Smith has just called up- I am to drive w. them at 9 a.m. (their 10, as they are on d.s. time)- Ethel Ely & Harriet got home last night from China etc. I am lunching w. the H's at Hadlyme- Dr. H took Mary & C.L. to Boston & returned yest. Miss M's arm has been set right & Dr. H been shown how to manipulate it. Dr. G wants C.L. for 5 weeks- 2 at C. Hill Hosp. 3 at Devereux Mansion. Corey H is free until next week, so she too came back yesterday- there- that's all that's in it.

[page 2]

Ever so much love my precious- Please tell me about Mr McF. r.s.v.p.
Mother

[page 3]

I think I'll not write so often. Am afraid you'll think I have nothing else to do. When I am really very busy!

Sun aft.

Box 235, Lyme
Connecticut

Dearest,

I've just deleted 6 pages from letter I wrote Lulu yester. and am keeping the cheque for the table- as I felt [more haven't?] to do so. I was pretending to her that I thought I ought to pay for it & I really didn't like the table nor think it was needed in the second story hall- prettier without any thing- I don't [want] [the cheque] and would really [rather] [return it] but one's self, sometimes gets so complicated, that I decided on account of feeling more straightforward

[page 4]

I wouldn't send it back. For the same reason I took out all I'd written about the curtains Mary is making. I did write to [Ernest Ober?] however to put the [battery?] she speaks of on my bill, & had L.K.B. to have plaster mended at my charge- So that's that- all trifles any way-

I lunched (too fatty) with Smith & Lowber, & picked a million or so of Boxwood's pansies (they like you to pick them) & came home to a lovely read in the hammock- am now going to Miss Lewis's to aft. tea (not water) & to tell her about the sermon-

Your loving mother-