I'll be home this week I think- Thurs. or Fri. but be sure & make engagements irrespective. October 26.

Box 235, Lyme
Connecticut

Thanks dear daughter much for the package. Wh. I found at the p.o. this a.m. on my return from N. Haven- the bread is stale, but perf. usable (not very good- too coarse) [Brace?] will be usable also-

I had such a nice visit w. B. Din. mid-day w. him & the children- Bobby & Louise, not Helen- to a Mrs [Shieve?] to meet- whom do you suppose? D. Isaacson & his wife! [Deming?] looks just as when I last saw him- & wife very nice- Baine not with them- at theater school

They lv. town for A. City to visit an uncle- Of course expect to see Shippen.

Miss [Gordriel?] took supper w. Us- (a fearfully plain & unadorned one)- & we had a nice eve. Bef. she came B. made me play hymns & he & Bobby & Louise sang- Louise told Margaret as she was undressing "Grandmother knew all the hymns we know & two more besides!"

I left at 9.30 this morn a heavenly morn. aft. the storm, & got back in an hour & forty minutes. It seems nothing at all , & I enjoyed the rain very much- Saw Mr & Mrs Bower & the boys off on the Colonial. She had sent off 21 boxes this morn- per truck to steamer- they sail Thursday- back here in 3 ½ yrs.

Mrs. Grayson & I took that lovely drive up east side of the river, then I came home to lunch a little dish washing & nap- now out to Mrs. Ely's, tea which I don't want, & to the Mullers to get ½ a broiling chicken, very small I hope- I am having a woman tomorrow to go over all forms etc. and then shall be all ready to close up leaving a clean house behind me. I shall go to Hadlyme on Wed. morn. hoping to find Dr. A.H.

shall come home soon for a good evening's reading- stil 25 years-

Thank Esther B. for welcome letter, very improving to my so-called french

Your loving,

Mother.

Would you mind calling up Mr. Allen C. Olmstead, Packard Bldg., as soon as you receive this & tell him I am sorry I shan't be "able" to get to the luncheon meeting tomorrow, Tuesday? I hope you won't mind- it saves me a letter
