Dear Mr. Lewis

I will not be able to see you to-morrow evening after all, can you come some other night instead?
Will write you later what night, but set your mind at rest, I'll be good and not say any Wednesday. Don't forget when you do come to arm yourself with your trophies from Broad-bent and Taylor's. In the meantime, hoping you will have as exciting a time at the Law Academy as your heart desires.

[page 2]

I remain
Very sincerely yours,
D.K.

Monday evening
