May 15th 1880.

Dear Mr. Lewis,

If you can come to-morrow evening I shall be very glad indeed to see you. I have been such a busy young woman (?) this week that there has really been no time to write or do much of anything else- is that a "bull" ?

In a tearing hurry,

Very sincerely yours,

D.K.

P.S. Don't forget your collect- I consider myself very good not to say anything about the epistle, but I can't ["denige"?] that it is long and ~~she~~ dif
