Sir

St Jorress Wick Hunt County du. 12. 1793

In consequence of a Contract that has taken Place between Stockley Sturges, and myself I have become bound unto him to pay unto you a debt due you from Stockley Sturges due Father to the present Stockley in Compliance therewith I have requested M^r. Buckmaster to pay you some money — which you will please to apply to the payment of Interest due on the aforesaid debt and receipt to me by Buck for the ^{same}, if he should not pay you all the Interest due thereon you may depend on receiving it early in the Spring and I am rather inclined to think that I may pay you two — hundred Pounds of the Principal sum within the Course of next summer if no unforeseen Accident should ~~not~~ take Place.

I am Sir Yours &c.
