My much esteemed Friend

I have just received yours of yesterday date by the Post, wherein you inform me that Sam<sup>l</sup> Griffiths Widow is desirous I would let her to you know how much is due on her husband's Bond. I have ~~now~~ before me the copy of a Letter which I wrote to Sam<sup>l</sup> Griffith dated on the same subject dated 4.8. of Dec<sup>r</sup> 1792, informing him that on a rough but difficult calculation there was upwards of £150 still due of the Principal. By that Estimate now also before me it amounted at that time to £155.10.10. I have not time now to go over that calculation again accurately, but I believe it will be found nearly right: if so that sum with the interest since accrued upon it will be the Ball<sup>ce</sup> due. If any error or revival of my former calculation should appear it shall on a final settlement be rectified. I am with great respect

Your affect<sup>d</sup> Friend

Samuel Griffins Widdow, desired me to write to thee for a statement of thy debt against D Griffin, I suppose if thou informs her or my self what the ballance is, may be all that may be necessary at this time, she says she is giling out wheat and Expects to pay thee at least a part of it before long —

Sir

I receiv'd your Favor of 7th instat inclosing Benj<sup>r</sup> Tarrow's Order on Tho<sup>s</sup> Shalerope payable 30 days after sight to you for the sum of £172 dated the 12th of Nov<sup>r</sup> last, accepted by Shalerope the 13th of Nov<sup>r</sup> and endorsed by you to me, which when paid shall be paid to the credit of your Bond dated the 15th of February, 1781. ~~The first of this month~~ I have given Notice to Shalerope that I am in Possession of the ~~above~~ order & requested him to direct his agent here to take it up when it becomes due. You are greatly mistaken in supposing that the ~~above~~ order will discharge the Balance due on your Bond. I have made a rough calculation by which after the Payment of the above order there will still remain a Balance of more than £150. The Statement is nice and laborious but not having <sup>of Leisure</sup> ~~time~~ now to go over it a second Time to examine <sup>it</sup> more accurately, I have deferred sending it by Mr<sup>s</sup> Owens as you desired, but I think it will turn out that the above mentioned Balance at least is ~~now~~ will be due. <sup>It</sup> may perhaps have escaped your memory that after the first year, the whole Bond bore interest the ~~the~~ Time was given you for the discharge of it, & and you must be sensible that the interest ~~will~~ <sup>for such a number of years must be</sup> ~~was~~ <sup>made up</sup>.

to a very considerable sum I am Sir y<sup>r</sup> humble Serv<sup>t</sup>
