In going over the Original Account of Sales to ascertain the Sale of every Article in its proper place I here notice ~~some~~ all the Articles that were ~~to~~ in by a Gentleman (R. Friday) whenever he thought they were going off at too low a Rate in order to take the Chance of the same Articles being sold again at an improved Price - I do this that it ^{appears} may that the Articles were in fact again sold and that there should not be a double Charge

Mr Holly day informs that Abel Smyth acquainted him that one Bed which happens to be included in the appraisement was taken to Chester Town in the life time of J. Chew for the use of the Family there but was noticed to the Appraisers as appertaining to the Farm of Swan Point and therefore valued by them as on the Farm - ~~but~~ that the Fact is that there is but one Bed left there -
