Geo. Folger's Acc't. Shaws & deliv^d
May 7th 1788 } £16.19.9

The Amount of Account exhibited by Geo Helker is £85.17.9

From the above Amount is to be deducted as follows

1st The Charge 1792 Jan^y 26 - a pair shoes for Harry charged 11.3
Feb^y 28 - Soaling & Reeling Boots for Coachmⁿ: 7.6
Feb^y 26 - pair shoes for Maid 8.6
1-7-3

NB. then Art^s were paid for settled place signed by Geo Helker 15 Mar. 1792.

2^d The whole Amount charged for Repairs in 1783. all which that Geo Helker thought proper to incur for his own Accommodation & Convenience, he was himself bound to pay for, it being his express agreement to pay for all the Repairs necessary for ~~desired~~ by him and in Consideration of his expecting to be at considerable Expence, the usual low Rent of £35 - was continued altho' all Rents were monstrously increased - this cannot be more strongly evinced than by Helker himself paying the next year £120 Rent - it is to be noted that the whole Amount laid out as Helker says for Repairs for that year being £40.1.4 and the Rent he paid to B Chew being £35 - makes but £75.1.4 a Sum vastly short of the Rent that could have been had from many People from March 1783 to March 1784 - added to the above, Many Accounts were subsequently settled and signed by Geo Helker in which he never attempted to bring in any Charge for Repairs of 1783 knowing that period that he was to be at the whole expence himself and besides, by all his preceding Leases he was bound to keep & surrender the Premises in Repair & if he suffered the Premises to go out of Repair at the End of the preceding lease he might have been obliged to have made up for the damage - vide the Leases & vide the Acc^t signed by him in 1788, 1791 & 1792 -

In every point of View therefore this Am^t is to be struck out - 40.1.4

3^d - The two Sums which in Jan^y & Feb^y 1781 he charges as B.C. as paid for Taxes which B.C. ought to have paid - these two Sums are charged in Helker's Acc^t rendered for the year 1781 - viz of the date of Jan^y & Feb^y 1781 - Continent Currency £484.4. & £45 - reduced to Specie a 75 for 1. will make £7.1.2 Specie - this was allowed to Helker in Settlement made in March 1792. in the sum of £9.7.0 - the Difference between £9.7.0 and the £7.1.2 viz £2.5.10 was repaid to Helker for Taxes alledged to be paid by him for 1st year 1780 - the Am^t therefore of £7.1.2 has been already paid to Helker in the Settlement made with him in March 1782 & therefore now to be deducted - 7.1.2

Turn over

Exhibition of Geo Helker's Account

4th The Item charged for Taxes as paid for 1782 all which he was bound by his Lease to pay - vide his Lease this therefore is to be deducted - £ 11.8.4

5th The Item of 1793 paid for County & Poor Tax for which he has already been allowed as per Acc^t settled with him - 15th March 1792. - 2..2..4

6th The Item of 1792 charged as paid to - Fisher for a City Tax which Tax was paid to Fisher by B. Chew as per Rec^t 23 May 1794. Fisher informing B. C. that Fisher refused to pay the same - 1..13..0

9. Helker charges sundry Taxes in May 1788 - the Justice of these claims is wholly questioned or they would have been presented at the different Settlements made and signed between B. Chew & G. Helker from 1782 to 1792 - it must have been known to Helker that B. Chew was not liable to pay or he would have paid them or allowed G. Helker for them
- if they ^{or any that did arise} arose after March 1788, Helker was bound by his Lease to pay them - these, B. C. refers to the discretion of the Referees

Amsterdam 25th Oct. 1783.

Sir!

Having none of your most esteemed Letters to answer since the date of our last circular in July, we now hope our Mr. LEONARD DE NEUFVILLE, is landed on your Continent, and will have had the honour of addressing you by Letter, if he hath not already paid you his respects in person, and that he may have success in collecting the Capital due his house; from the result of all which we flatter ourselves our correspondence will gain mutual advantage, and we be the more frequently honour'd by your commands.

The sense we shall entertain for any preference shewn us by the friends to whom we acknowledge ourselves already obliged, as by those to whom we may be so hereafter, will convince that if we consider any favours they may please to confer on us as compensations for the very great sacrifices made by our ancient prior Mr. JOHN DE NEUFVILLE, we shall not receive them with less gratitude.

We own we confide so much in the honour of a Nation for the welfare and glory of which we are not less interested now than heretofore, as not to suppose the commercial part of it who are acquainted with, and wish well to the friends of their country on this side of the water, can have seen with indifference the most zealous of them made the Victims to their unbounded attachment. The assurances given us already by some of our oldest connections, does not permit us to have a different opinion, and tho' there will ever be cause to lament that the dignity of so ancient and respectable a house, and the feelings of men of such worth should have been thus wounded, yet it must be the greatest satisfaction the Father & Son can receive, to see the present establishment of it encouraged in proportion to the confidence we humbly presume to say it justly merits on account of its solidity, as for vigilance and that steady attachment due to its friends & their interests.

Sollicitous of receiving some mark of your favourable sentiments by being honoured with your, or your friends orders, we beg leave to hand you the present prices of our market, which is one of the purposes of the present, as well as to repeat the distinguished sentiments of esteem and respectfull regard with which we remain

Sir!

Your most Obed^t Humble Servants.

dated March 16. 1887

Dear Mr. Chen

As I mean to attend Doctor Moyes's lecture to morrow evening think it will be better to avoid all Tea parties as to secure a good seat it will be necessary to be at the College by six of clock and I have engaged to take some Ladies ~~at~~ that hour where I shall be happy to meet you &c. Yours J. B.
